Code of Conduct
Communication
Avoid interrupting people
Be concise with your points and allow others to participate
In a misunderstanding, try to assume the most benign interpretation and then seek clarification
Address problematic speech or behavior when it occurs, if possible, even if it wasn't addressed to you
Avoid jargon or terms that may not be understood by the entire group
Inclusion
Affirmative
Informed
Competent
Everyone involved has the knowledge and judgement required for consent. Impaired people (drugs, alcohol, etc.) cannot consent. Be wary of power dynamics. Make sure people feel safe saying no
